Dear Mr. Morano:

In view of your interest in Mr. [] I am writing to advise you of the final outcome of his case.

As Mr. [] indicated in his letter of 12 November 1957, Mr. [] had been interviewed in September but had failed to return the personnel papers. Since receiving your telegram and Mr. []'s personnel papers on 2 December, his qualifications were carefully considered by all appropriate components of the Agency in the hope that we might be able to take advantage of his services. Unfortunately, in view of our current personnel situation, we find that we do not have a position which would be commensurate with his background and experience. A copy of the letter which our personnel people sent Mr. [] is enclosed for your information.

We appreciate your interest in Mr. [] and are sorry that we are unable to take any positive action on his application.

Sincerely,

Allen W. Dulles
